Dear Commission:

On March 10, 2009, 1-800-RECONEX, Inc., submitted a letter requested the cancellation of it's Certificate of Convenience and Necessity (CCN) granted in Docket No. T-03318A-02-0542; Decision No. 66598, CCN granted in Docket No. T-03318A-00-0832; Decision No. 64067 and it's CCN granted in Docket No. T-3318A-97-0071; Decision 61265.

The March 10th letter referenced an incorrect docket number for this issue. Please disregard the incorrect docket number, and accept this letter to reflect the correct docket number for this matter: Docket No. T-03318A-07-0348. A corrected version of the March 10th letter is attached.

Thank you in advance for all your assistance in this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned directly at 503.982.5585.

Very truly yours,

Re: Docket No. T-03318A-07-0348

Dear Commission:

On May 28, 2008, 1-800-RECONEX, Inc., requested the cancellation of it's Certificate of Convenience and Necessity (CCN) granted in Docket No. T-03318A-02-0542; Decision No. 66598 and it's CCN granted in Docket No. T-03318A-00-0832; Decision No. 64067. We intended to continue services provided under the CCN granted in Docket No. T-3318A-97-0071; Decision 61265.

1-800-RECONEX, Inc., would now like to request the cancellation it's CCN granted in Docket No. T-3318A-97-0071; Decision 61265, as well.

Should Reconex decide in the future that such service is of interest, we will file a new application with the Corporations Commission. Thank you in advance for all your assistance in this matter. If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to contact the undersigned directly at 503.982.5585.

Very truly yours,
